FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Temptations

Adam and Eve couldn't resist the seduction of the serpent. They were tested and they failed. On the other hand, despite three appealing circumstances (food for the hungry, sensationalism, and power), Jesus resisted Satan's tempting challenges. Paul, in his letter to the Romans, contrasts for us the differences in these two situations. One human's disobedience brought about sin and death. Another human's obedience freed us from sin and death. We are blessed, even in our human condition, with the gift of salvation.

FIRST READING: Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7    RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 51:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 17
SECOND READING: Romans 5:12-19 [12, 17-19]    GOSPEL: Matthew 4:1-11

Comment

The serpent is clearly used to awaken Eve's desire to eat. Neither she nor Adam could resist tasting the fruit of the forbidden tree. Their disobedience to God's command is considered to be the original source of sin in humankind.

The "Big Guy" came out for Jesus. It was Satan, not just any evil creature, who presented Jesus with three tests. First of all, Jesus had to have been starving. He hadn't eaten for forty days, so the temptation of food probably seemed like a sure bet to Satan. But Jesus resisted. "Okay, if you're not hungry, let's try something spectacular. Throw yourself from the temple roof and show everyone how God will save you." Again, Jesus refused. If all else fails, go for greed. Offer Jesus all the power and wealth of the world. When Jesus obeyed God for the third time, Satan could do no more. He left Jesus.

Paul parallels these two events. In both instances, evil forces try coaxing and tricking the people involved to eat something. Adam and Eve are hungry to become like God. Jesus is coming off a forty-day fast. Adam and Eve get duped. They fall for the con. Jesus doesn't submit. He chooses not to use his power and in his humility sends Satan packing.

A contrast in the human condition is clear between the first reading and the Gospel. Adam initiates sin with disobedience. A certain gloom and darkness permeate the world after the fall of Adam and Eve. God is no longer directly accessible to people, and they fall into sinful ways without God. In the era of the New Adam, a transformation occurs. There is salvation through Christ. Jesus saves us from sin because he obeyed. He brings us new life; once again we have a direct connection with God.

Reflection

Why was Jesus out in the wilderness starving himself in the first place? God's plan had been made clear to Jesus. He knew what it was he had to do. He knew it would not be easy. Jesus needed time to prepare for the difficult task that lay ahead, and to do this, he needed some quiet time with God to pray, to listen, and to plan.

When Jesus finished, Satan was waiting for him. Satan, like the serpent with Adam and Eve, made it sound like no big deal. "If you're the son of God, just do it." And the serpent, "Just take a little bite; everybody's doing it." Two thousand years later, we're still being tempted to just do it because everyone else is. We lower our standards, the standards Jesus showed us, for ourselves, our children, our loved ones. Why? For all kinds of reasons. We live in a time when instant gratification and personal pleasure are not only acceptable but expected. If we have the resources, there are few things we say "no" to. If we have enough money we buy it (sometimes we buy it anyway); if we have the figure, we wear it (sometimes we wear it anyway); if we have the energy we do it (sometimes we do it anyway).

We can only serve one God. Jesus knew this and Adam and Eve found out. Do other masters call us?

What are you doing for Lent?

1. Give up Sin: Show your love for God by keeping his commandments. Turn away from sins.
2. Fast: An empty stomach can lead to more attentive prayer. Give the money you saved on food to others in alms.
3. Pray: Be in constant prayer. Pray for your family and friends. For those who suffer, and for the Church and the world.
4. Do good works: Help those in need. Pray for them and be ready to serve them in their time of need.
5. Give alms: Help the poor and support the good works of the Church. Give cheerfully to God who has given us everything we have.
6. Abstain: Give up meat or other desirable foods during Lent, especially on Friday, the day of Christ's saving death on the cross.
7. Do meditative reading: Nourish your faith by spending time in quiet reading and reflection. Prayerful reading of God's Word each day will open your heart to the Spirit, and let God's thoughts and ways influence yours.
8. Control desire for possessions: Build up treasures in heaven rather than on earth. Cut down on material possessions, eliminate frills, lessen wants, share yourself -your time and your talents- with others.
9. Control desire for entertainment: Too much entertainment and other distractions can lead to less or no time for the works of the Lord.
10. Carry out duties in life: Serve God by living out your vocation in love each day. God is calling each of us to be a living sacrifice. Offer your daily life through Christ!

TAKE A LOT OF BEER DURING LENT:

The parish priest of St. Patrick's Church in Bangalore in India gave a simple advice on what to do during 40days of Lent. He said we should take lots of BEER.

Now do not let your hearts go wondering. This means:

B-Bible- Read your bible. This is God's given time to be spiritually enriched with the Word of God.

E-Empathy- Feel empathy for the poor and neglected and do something about it.

E-Eucharist- Go for Mass frequently besides Sunday's, if possible every day.

R-Reconciliation- This is the best time to reconcile with those we have hurt, not talking to. Seek forgiveness. Restore our relationship with God and one another.
